

Drainage Bag Vents

Drainage bag vent is a hydrophobic plug to avoid the liquid leakage of the drainage bag. The vents are precisely assembled and press-fit into the venting chamber per exact dimensions and keep the pressure balance in the process of the filling in the bag, prevent the leakage at any stage, easy to operate and change the bags during the draining procedures.